MNCPA announces election of Brett Aamot

MINNEAPOLIS (April 25, 2011) – The Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants (MNCPA) members have elected Brett Aamot to serve on its board of directors. As a board member, he will help set policy and direction for the 9,400-member organization. Aamot has belonged to the MNCPA for 24 years and served on a variety of committees and task forces including his 2009 appointed role on the MNCPA Leadership Cabinet. Brett is the Managing Partner at Conway, Death & Schmiesing, PLLP, and has been with the firm since it was founded in 1985. Brett obtained his CPA designation in 1985, became a Partner in 1989 and Managing Partner in 2000. His practice emphasis is in a variety of accounting and tax areas, but concentrates on auditing and small business consulting. Brett was listed in The Twin Cities Monthly and Minnesota Law and Politics as a "Super CPA" in 2001 and 2002.

Brett is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Willmar Lakes Area Chamber of Commerce. He is active in a number of local civic organizations and activities, recently serving as the 2009-2010 Campaign Chair for the United Way of West Central Minnesota. He currently serves as a director on the Green Lake Sanitary Sewer & Water District Board of Directors, and is a member of the Willmar High School football coaching staff.

Brett is supported by his wife Kathy. They reside in Willmar.

The Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants (MNCPA) serves the public interest by advancing the highest standards of ethics and practice within the CPA profession. MNCPA delivers on that promise by offering extensive continuing professional education and resources; advocating for members and the public with regulatory agencies and boards; and mentoring and encouraging the CPAs and business leaders of tomorrow. Founded in 1904, MNCPA's 9,400 members work in public accounting, business, industry, government and education. To locate a CPA, visit www.mncpa.org/referral or call 800.331.4288.
